

California Primary Care Shortage Areas

The California Primary Care Shortage Areas correspond to the 2010 U.S. Census and uses two criteria: percent of population below 100% federal poverty level and primary care physician to population ratio. Data used include U.S. Census, American Community Survey 5 yr population and poverty estimates and InfoUSA 2013 Physicians for each Medical Service Study Area.

0 50 100 Miles